

Shalom!

We hope that you have enjoyed having the largest Jewish festival in New York State (outside of New York City) right here in Syracuse for the past 19 years.

The 21st annual Jewish Music & Cultural Festival (JMAC) will take place on September 13, 2020, on the grounds of the Sam Pomeranz Jewish Community Center of Syracuse, from noon to 5:30 pm. JMAC has become a place to meet and greet people you have not seen in a long time and share the spirit of "community."

It's an afternoon of wonderful Jewish food (under the va'ad), Jewish and Klezmer music, interesting vendors, and fun activities for children, which remains free for everyone in the community to attend because of our generous sponsors and donors. Your donation will give you the satisfaction of knowing that you have contributed to the continued success of the Festival!

There's something new at JMAC each year, and this year is no exception. We hope that you will plan to come and check it out on September 13th!

Thank you for your support!
